THE ANNUAL MEETING.

A 20th Century Cousins' Meeting was held in the Mission Memorial Auditorium on April 21st, 1917.

The hall with its noiseless cement floor and high arched rafters was grand beyond the brightest dreams of the Missionaries. A great star-spangled banner stretched in front of the elevated platform made ample decoration. A basket of African daisies gave a touch of nature, and children—scores of them—came tripping in and seated themselves in family groups with their parents. Surely the Mothers who but yesterday saw their Willies, Emmas and Franks sitting demurely in the old school-house back of Kawaiahao Church making scrap-books while listening to learned discussions on practical civilization, would be astonished to see them today leading their own happy grandchildren into this joyous meeting.

Reports were read from Trustees, Board of Managers, Chamberlain House Committee, Secretary and Treasurer. The nominating committee, through their chairman, Miss Harriet G. Forbes, recommended the following officers:

G. P. Wilder—President

Rev. H. P. Judd—Vice-president

Mrs. R. W. Andrews—Secretary

Lyle A. Dickey—Treasurer.

By a unanimous vote the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the Society for these officers.

Acting Treasurer W. J. Forbes announced the collection to be $57.30.

The Honor-roll was signed at a table near the entrance by Cousins and all descendants of the missionaries, 140 in all. These cards, popular with the children, keep the record of those who attend for five years consecutively.

The address of the day was delivered by J. S. Emerson on, "Reminiscences of Waialua," and was especially enjoyed by the boys, even those of mature years. He told of raising corn, shelling it by hand, grinding it in a little home-made mill and sending the meal to Honolulu by a native carrier with an auamo; he spoke of hunting hen's nests and selling eggs to get money for mahina hou —the missionary meeting; of the old style of fishing, of planting cocoanuts, making candles and bullets, shooting wild turkeys and lossoing cattle.

The Family Roll-call was the number of greatest interest. Mr. George Cooke called the names of the Fathers and S. G. Wilder tallied. The Cookes held the highest record yet made, 28, and the Judds came next with 26. Had two other Judds arrived five minutes sooner there would have been the excitement of a tie. The Rices with 14, the Chamberlains with 13, Thurstons with 11, Lowell Smiths with 10, and J. W. Smiths and Elias Bonds with 8 each, registered higher than ever before. The Gulicks with 3, the Emersons and Rowells with 2 each and the Doles with 1 should received 100%, as every member of these families now on the Islands was present. Others who responded were 8 Forbes, 6 Castles, 5 Halls, 2 each of the Andrews, Baldwin, Hitchcock, Lyman and Paris families, and 1 each of the Alexanders, Binghams and Lyons. The Alexanders, who scored highest the first year of the roll-call, have been migrating, and the George Dole-Rowell family, who number forty-two children and grandchildren, had but a single representative.

The Chamberlain House topic was almost crowded out from lack of time. However, Mr. Erdman's plan for making the building a living memorial by using a part of it to house the Bible Training School—the future ministers of Hawaii—was presented by Mrs. Erdman. The time being too short for discussion, Mr. F. C. Atherton moved that a letter be prepared by the Board of Managers and sent to the Cousins asking for their opinion. There were from 175 to 200 persons present. The meeting closed in the usual way.

With Mrs. Carrie Castle Westervelt at the piano, the glorious old hymns, "Come Thou Almighty King" for the opening, and "The Missionary Hymn" for closing, were inspiring.

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT.

EVENTS OF THE YEAR.

The manuscript for the Sixty-fourth Annual Report was sent to the printer early in May, and the books were finished, ready for distribution, in July. Unfortunately the book weighed a little more than eight ounces, and according to the new postal regulations, had to be sent by parcels post, making the cost of mailing more than ever before. Increase in the price of paper and ink added to the expense.

The Society wishes to thank the donors for the following gifts: from Dr. Frances Wetmore a box of "Missionary Heralds"; from W. R. Castle a package of Annual Reports; also from Miss Ellen Lyman some H. M. C. reports left after making up her file; from Mr. G. P. Castle photographs of Dr. and Mrs. Snow, Dr. and Mrs. Sturges and Dr. and Mrs. L. H. Gulick; Miss Mary Parker donated a number of Micronesian views; Rev. and Mrs. O. H. Gulick gave pictures of the "Morning Star", L. H. Gulick and family, Mrs. Knight, Miss Knight, Mother Emerson, Mother Baldwin, Mr. Logan and Mr. and Mrs. Sturges, also a full length photograph of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Atherton; Mrs. Hyde sent a photograph of her son Charles and his two little daughters; Miss Evelyn McDougal gave a photo. of "Hawaii's First Doll" with an appropriate poem; Miss McCarthy presented the sewing-machine that Mrs. Lydia B. Coan had used all her life; Miss K. Reynolds gave two palms that had graced Mrs. Coan's "Gilbertina" home; and R. W. Andrews gave a copy of S. E. Bishop's "Reminiscences of Old Hawaii," and a photo. of a drawing of the old grass church of Honolulu.

Good news comes from our proteges in boarding school. Isabella Hulu visited Honolulu during the holidays and returned to Maunaolu, where she has one more year before graduation. Mary Kawelo and Miriam Lane, also at Maunaolu are doing well. Helen Naone stands well in her classes at Kamehameha Girls' School. Philip Naone did not go back to Hilo. Paul Kaai, of Hookena, has taken the scholarship voted to James Kawelo, who did not wish to go to Hilo. Paul entered with the new year.

A new Chamberlain House Committee, Mr. Harold Dillingham, Mrs. Caroline Westervelt, and Miss Elsie Wilcox, was appointed to raise the remaining $3,000 of the $15,000 pledged for renovating the Chamberlain House and assisting the Mission Memorial. An appeal was made to those who had not already given to this fund. S. G. Wilder continues as treasurer.

The Cousins' vault at the Mission Memorial came into the care of your secretary on Sept. 5, 1915. A short time previous Mr. Clifton Tracy had been employed to fumigate the old books, letters and records belonging to the Hawaiian Board and to place them on shelves. The work was well done.

There were over one thousand of these books, booklets and magazines, and these were first catalogued by shelves. About three hundred of them were written in the Hawaiian tongue, and two hundred in dialects of the Micronesian and Marquesan Islands.

Those printed and written in Hawaiian, representing as they do the intellectual work of the Mission Fathers, are carefully treasured among the Cousins' belongings. Many of the Micronesian and Marquesan books and pamphlets are the life-work of some of our Cousins, great men, such as Dr. Luther Halsey Gulick and Dr. Hiram Bingham, and all are treasures that cannot be duplicated.

Among the English volumes there has been a process of elimination by our efficient Library Committee to make room for the books, journals and letters previously owned by the Cousins and for the files of letters yet to be sent in by them.

The books now consist of twenty historical volumes, ten biographical, eleven scientific, seven missionary and eleven ecclesiastical volumes.

Of magazines or periodicals there are "The Missionary Heralds", bound, from 1806 to 1886, "The Mother's Magazine", volumes 4, 5, 8, 11, 12, 13; "The Hawaiian Spectator", volumes 1 and 2; "The American Quarterly Registry" for two years; "The Islander" (predecessor of "Thrum's Annual"); "The Maile Quarterly" and odd numbers of "The Friend". Files of these should be completed, and there should be a set of Thrum's Annuals; also copies of the various books and pamphlets written by Cousins. It would be a beautiful tribute to the Fathers and Mothers if our living authors, and the families of deceased authors should place copies of their books and papers in the Cousins' vault for the generations to come. Some have done so.

There are many reports but not complete files of "The Missionary Society", "The Evangelical Association", "Hawaiian Mission Children's Society", "The London Missionary Society", "The Church Missionary Society", and copies of the "A. B. C. F. M. Reports" from 1810 to 1883. There are also financial reports going back to 1823.

Correspondence has been so voluminous that we have but made a beginning in its classification. It is now catalogued as "General Letters", those written to the missionaries from the A. B. C. F. M. at Boston; "Hawaiian Board Letters", which are mostly of a business nature; "Friendship Letters" and "Family Letters". For these letters we have secured six steel sections of "Document Files" at a cost of $148.50. This and also the price of an electric fan for the vault was paid for from a fund belonging to the Cousins in the care of the Hawaiian Board. About one-third of this space will probably be left for family letters.

There have been held this year two meetings of the Board of Managers, an informal meeting of the Cousins called to look over and discuss the Chamberlain House, and a "Veranda Brigade Meeting". An account of the latter we publish. The first meeting of the board of Managers was called to decide what should be kept in the vault and the advisability of securing a trained librarian for the archives. It was agreed that the work of the missionaries—translations and other writings—books, reports and correspondence, should be preserved; also their biographies, and such history and descriptions as throw light upon the Sandwich Islands of their times. The care of the archives was left in the hands of the secretary. The other meeting of the Board of Managers was held to make arrangements for the Annual Meeting. Instead of calling other meetings our active and efficient President has called upon the members personally, and all have responded nobly in the work of securing new members and strengthening the bonds of cousinhood.

There have been nine marriages of Cousins this year, twenty-seven births and eleven deaths. The Treasurer has reported 72 new members, making the number of Cousins 1099.

The Young Cousins' Meeting.

On Feb. 7 a score of children with dancing curls, bright eyes and merry dimples made themselves at home in the Old Mission House, skipping through the narrow doors, peeping through the tiny-paned windows, running up the steep stairway or peering down into the basement, with all the life of those children of nearly a century ago. And when they seated themselves at the feet of the story-telling Grandmother that afternoon, what faces of long ago looked again through their eager eyes! Brother Cooke, Sister Rice, Brother Kinney, Sister Smith, Brother Johnson, Sister Judd, et al., et al. Some of the children answered to the very names, while others bore the family lineaments although the surnames of this generation were new. The story-teller, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, in a happy vein of reminiscence, told the sweet old story of the coming of the missionaries, great-grandparents of her hearers, from New England to these then far-off shores. The six months' voyage around the Horn; the delayed permission to erect the first frame house, cut out in Boston, in its modest dimensions, finer than the King's palace of grass; pictures of the parched plain, treeless, grassless, with its few and brackish wells; the practical efforts to reduce the strange tongue to a written language, that the gospel of love might be communicated to an ignorant and erring people; the domestic trials of the missionary mother in her crowded habitation, the faith and courage of the elders; the unconscious joys of childhood—all these brought the old days vividly before our little "cousins".

It was good to be there and to witness the interest, the sympathy, and the understanding of the past by the children of today.

OUR MISSION WORKERS.

Rev. and Mrs. Delaporte, so long our loved and efficient missionaries at Nauru, are now in charge of a small German church and congregation in Muscatine, Iowa. Their children are in school and Miss Mitzner, their assistant in Nauru, is near them.

Rev. and Mrs. Dean Wickes, the missionaries of Central Union Church to Tung Chow, China, write interesting letters of their work among that people.

Rev. Francis M. Price, formerly of Micronesia, then of Guam, writes encouragingly of mission work from his home at Paotingfu, China.

Mrs. E. W. Sheffield, aunt of Mrs. F. C. Atherton, for forty years a missionary in China, gave most instructive talks at the January and February meetings of the Woman's Board.

Dan Crawford again sends characteristic letters to "The Friend," picturing the joys, trials and conquests of life in farthest, darkest Africa, including his own sickness and near-death.

Great changes have occurred in the Honolulu work. Dr. Scudder of Central Union Church, for nine years a power in our city, and Mrs. Scudder, greatly beloved, accepted a call to minister to a church in Tokyo, Japan. Mr. Ebersole also, associate minister, left suddenly in August at the call of the Y. M. C. A. for workers among the prisoners in Europe. He goes as a messenger from the Prince of Peace amid the turmoils and the dangers of war. We can only admire his bravery and pray for his safe return.

Central Union realized her double loss, but providentially Rev. Dr. J. H. Williams of Redlands, Cal., father of Robert Day Williams, President of Mid-Pacific Institute, became a father to the orphaned church, and with clear, forceful, up-to-date sermons and a great heart of sympathy, has won the love of all while tiding us over the interim till a permanent pastor is found.

For six weeks in the summer, Dr. Raymond C. Brooks, of Berkeley, preached most acceptably to Central Union in the mornings and to the united churches in the evenings.

Mrs. Elijah McKenzie, long the successful missionary for the Woman's Board to the Chinese on Beretania street, left in August because of her husband's ill-health, and Mrs. Schenck supplied her place in connection with other duties. Recently the Hawaiian Board has persuaded Mrs. McKenzie to return to that field.

The Woman's Board has engaged Mrs. Leigh J. Doane and Mrs. Fenton as its missionaries in its new and enlarged work on Fort Street and at Moiliili.

The Hawaiian Board Bible School, for the preparation of young men of different nationalities for the ministry, heretofore quartered at the Mid-Pacific Institute, now holds its sessions at the Mission Memorial building. The faculty is composed of Reverends J. P. Erdman, F. S. Scudder, H. P. Judd and N. C. Schenck. In June an assistant teacher, Miss Mora Caborn, trained for the work, bright, enthusiastic and able, entered upon successful service, but on October 27 she was called up higher, and recently Miss Conover has come to fill her place.

The mutual interest and occupancy of the Mission Memorial Building brings into closer touch and sympathy the Hawaiian Board and Cousins' Society, the one memorializing the Mission Fathers and Mothers from whose work as a central foundation the enlarged service of the other radiates. The Board's work is our work, and their success is our delight.

The annual meeting of The Hawaiian Board was held at Hilo in June, 1916, and the delegates returned, delighted with the hospitality of the Hiloites, encouraged by accounts of work well done, and enthused by visions of a harvest to be gathered in. The re-organization of the workers of the Board has given the five field secretaries more freedom to exercise their individual talents in their respective departments. They work in harmony, going out by twos and fours to hold evangelistic meetings on the different islands, pressing forward with zeal like that which characterized our forbears.

The Y. M. C. A. has increased its membership by over two hundred. The night schools have been popular, the physical department well attended, and the Bible classes have numbered over four hundred and fifty men and boys. The Japanese branch has three hundred members, the Korean Association eighty-six, and there are fifty-five Filipino members, while the work reaches many more. The Chinese have decided to employ a Chinse secretary next year. The territorial branch on Kauai is so successful that a Territorial Committee has been appointed to guide in expanding the work throughout the Islands.

The Y. W. C. A. has had a phenomenal record. It entered its new building, corner of Hotel and Alakea Streets, with the New Year. A week of receptions illustrated the growth of the Society. As set forth by the president, Mrs. W. F. Frear, "The number of clubs for women in the Association has grown from 2 to 15; club members at headquarters from 25 to 236; extension club members from 25 to 150; enrollment in educational classes from 15 to 130; enrollment in physical classes from 86 to 180; the daily patrons of the lunch rooms from 45 to 135; the number of secretaries necessary to carry on the work from 5 to 10; and the total enrollment in the Association has grown from 807 to 1,386." A further campaign of publicity lasted three weeks, ending in a three days' climax. During these three days, Jan. 31-Feb. 2, there were ten teams of ten women each who canvassed the city to raise the $17,000 needed for the 1917 year budget. They succeeded, and this will enable them to pay off the debt on their building, secure a religious secretary, an immigration secretary, a stenographer, and to put up a beach club house.

SCHOOLS.

The schools of Hawaii, planted by the missionaries in 1820, cultivated with unceasing labor and prayer, and often watered with tears, were left to their children as a heritage more precious than silver and gold. These schools have grown to be the pride of the nation, but they are especially dear to "The Cousins" as their legacy.

Punahou Academy, founded in 1841 for the education of the children of the missionaries, observed during the past year its seventy-fifth anniversary. For three days the celebration continued. On Tuesday evening, June 21st, a commemoration service was held, presided over by Judge Dole and addressed by W. R. Castle and others. On Wednesday, June 22nd, was held on Alexander Field, the Punahou Pageant. First came the Academic Procession led by Berger's band, and then the pageant proper, where over one hundred natives in brilliant barbaric splendor and weird meles, represented the gift by Boki to the missionaries of Ka-puna-hou, the New Spring. Then was pictured the little school with its day pupils, fifteen boarders and strict discipline, the debating society, and the coming of the tramear. There was the procession of the seventy-five classes, each with banner and strange fashions of dress. There were grand old men in that line, with locks of snow, strong, athletic, intelligent men in middle life, smiling youth and little children marking the time till they formed a circle of years, and as the twilight fell a burst of music—Punahou songs—rolled out from the choir of hundreds of Punahou pupils, dressed in the colors of Punahou, the blue and the gold. The next day, Thursday, was given over to the reception, the meeting of old schoolmates, the picnic, the addresses and the gifts. Among the latter was a donation of $75,000 for an Assembly Hall.

Lahainaluna, now a part of the public-school system, is the Agricultural High School of the territory. In June, 1916, it celebrated its eighty-fifth anniversary and graduated fourteen boys who have made an enviable record as farmers. One of the essays read was on "Self-Government at Lahainaluna".

This school was founded in 1831 as a high school for the preparation of teachers and preachers. In a report from Lahainaluna for 1841 we find this entry: "The number of teachers has been increased this year to three, with a secular assistant." "The number of scholars that entered the school in June was fifty-six. Those who had been at the school for four years or more, to the number of twenty-nine, have all been dismissed with regular certificates. The year commenced June 5, 1840, and terminated April 21, 1841. The scholars have had but few days of respite from the regular exercises of the school. This has been not only with their consent, but at the request of the scholars themselves." * * * "The manual labor system of the scholars has within a few months past been considerably changed. Instead of calling them out to work four hours a day, similar to the "paahao" system of the government, the scholars have been paid for their work when finished, according to its value as estimated by the teachers. One-half is deducted for food, house-rent, books, etc., and the other half is paid to them in such articles as they choose, which is generally clothing, stationery, etc., and is bona fide theirs to do with as they please. Thus far the change has been favorable. The scholars are more industrious, less mischievous, better clothed, cleaner, and in every respect as good in their studies."

The increased faculty consisted of Rev. Lorrin Andrews, Rev. E. W. Clark and Rev. Sheldon Dibble.

Kohala Girls' School.—As noted in the last Cousins' report this school sent out an appeal for $50,000 for an endowment fund and a new dormitory. At the opening of school in September $12,500 had been subscribed for the new building and $12,500 for the endowment. Weeks before the opening of school every bed was engaged, and when Mr. A. Carter of Parker's Ranch asked to have eight or more girls, daughters of his employees, taken in, and was told there was no room, he offered $100 extra for each girl, to be spent in the erection of a cottage. The cottage was built, large enough to accommodate twelve girls and a teacher, and again they are crowded. Beds have been placed in the sewing room, hospital and wherever a cot can be crowded in. Good work is being happily carried on in all the departments, notwithstanding the congested environment, because of their faith in the willingness and ability of the people to raise the other $25,000 that will insure the completion of the building, and the future home of the girls of Hawaii.

Mid-Pacific Institute.—Thirty-nine graduates of Mid-Pacific received diplomas at Wilcox Hall, Mills School, in June of 1916. Nine of these were graduates from Mills High School, seventeen from Mills 8th grade, and thirteen from Kawaiahao 8th grade.

Dr. Robert Day Williams is now president of both Kawaiahao Seminary and Mills School, and he has brought the two schools still closer together by appointing a common treasurer, a book-keeper and a caretaker of all the buildings.

The roof of Kawaiahao building has been re-shingled, the kitchen enlarged and a cork carpet laid in the dormitory. The new principal, Miss Kathryn G. Adams, is eminently fitted for the position, having taken college work in five colleges, done Settlement work and Y. W. C. A. work and having experience as Dean of Women at several colleges. Miss Kinney is vice-principal, and the new teachers are six in number, all coming with high recommendations.

At Mills School, Mr. John F. Nelson is principal, and he has ten new assistants, all teachers of ability and experience.

Through the year religious leadership has been made prominent among Mills boys, not only in required Bible-study and chapel exercises, but in voluntary C. E. meetings and in help given in various ways to outside missions.

One encouragement given Mills this year was a gift from Mr. B. F. Dillingham of Olaa stock to the value of nineteen or twenty thousand dollars.

Maunaolu.—This excellent school closed its busy and successful year on June 3rd, 1916, with an interesting entertainment. There were bright pictures and vivid descriptions of the Panama-Pacific Exposition, varied by an excellent musical program in charge of Miss Leonora Clark. There were no graduates in 1916 as changes in the course of study were being made, but after the intellectual feast all friends present were royally entertained at a luau. Miss Heusner spent the vacation at her home in Ohio, and Mrs. Grace P. Haven looked after the painting and renovation of the building and improvements on the grounds.

The new year opened with a full corps of teachers and twelve more pupils than the building was planned to accommodate. "The classroom work continues to be excellent, and greater emphasis is being put on the homely virtues and traits of life, on elements of character and thrift which will benefit the girls in every place in life. A very large garden has been added this year and plans are developing for a large fruit area." The new matron, Miss Edna J. Hill, a recent graduate from the Hartford School of Pedagogy, has entered very heartily into the work. She also has charge of the Christian Endeavor or evening service and is doing much good. Mr. Matthews of the Alexander Settlement Work of Wailuku has charge of the athletic exercises, and the girls are entering into the spirit of the games with a great deal of zest.

The Hilo Boys' Boarding School.—Few changes have occurred in the Hilo Boys' Boarding School this year. With the same efficient teachers there has been opportunity to carry out and perfect plans so carefully formulated before. With such a variety of literary, artistic, mechanical, musical and industrial occupations to choose from there can be no monotony, and the games and an occasional trip down town is all the recreation the boys desire. Indeed this school so appeals to the people of Hilo that they are asking for an annex — a girls' department — where the girls of East Hawaii may have the same excellent preparation for life accorded their brothers.

We are glad to insert the following from the Advertiser: "The supreme court sustained the decision of Judge Parsons made in the suit brought by the trustees of the Hilo Boarding School against the Territory. The lower court held that the school was entitled to take 5,590,000 gallons of water a day from the Wailuku stream, and this ruling was affirmed in the higher court to which the Territory took an appeal. The suit involved ancient water rights."

The College of Hawaii, with its rare privileges to students in special instruction, is becoming more widely known and more highly appreciated. Professor Vaughan MacCaughey spent some months on the mainland delivering lectures at Chicago, Chautauqua and other places. Honolulu is very sorry that Professor Illingworth expects to leave in June to accept a position in Australia.

Very interesting were all the commencement exercises held in Honolulu in 1916. The twenty-fifth anniversary of the Kamehameha Schools was especially enjoyable. Their commencement was held June 9th on the spacious lawn in the soft moonlight of a tropical evening. Thirty-three boys and girls here finished their course in industrial and literary education, and with their diplomas in their hands were ushered, by Rev. George Laughton of Hilo, into the greater school of life. Many members of the first class, 1891, were present, only two of the fourteen having passed away.

The Normal School graduated thirty-six students on June 20th, and so great has been the demand for teachers that these all received appointments during the past year. The McKinley High School closed June 22, the Grade Schools on June 23, and Punahou Academy on June 24. The Summer School for teachers was well attended. The "School for Boys" at Waialae has changed its name to "The Military Academy."

Among the new school buildings erected during the year was the eight-roomed cement Central Grammar School on Emma Street.

A High School for Maui has been assured by a private donation of $25,000, and C. W. Dickey has been here from Oakland to draw plans for its erection.

THE ROLL-CALL OF COUSINS.

Cousins—sons and daughters of that band of men and women who “pledged their time, their strength and their earnings” to the service of Christianizing this land—you children of the first generation, who early learned to halve your oranges and share your bowl of poi, porridge and pia, whose play-place was the shadow of the stone wall and the depths of the hau tree, and who gathered at the “four C’s” and trudged over dusty plains to primitive Punahou; grandchildren who indulged in the luxury of a tram-car ride to school, who gathered land-shells on the mountain-top, and took long horseback rides beneath a tropic moon; great-grandchildren, who in your daily life know the evergreen hills, the lily-ponds, ball-games on beautiful athletic fields, the swish of palms in the trade-winds and long talks under feathery algeroba trees—Cousins all—we are asking from each of you some little incident in your present life or some reminiscence of the yesterdays—something that will keep us in touch with each other. We are sending the enclosed card to each family in our large membership, hoping that all will write, and that many will respond more fully by letter.

We want photographs, too. A few of the sons and daughters are not yet represented here, and these we want now. This year, also, we are calling for pictures of the third generation, the grandchildren of the missionaries.

Alexander (W. P.).—William D. Alexander still hails from Phoenix, Arizona. Arthur C. Alexander has been attending to business on Maui for some months. His son, William P. Alexander, is at the Experiment Station here, De Witt is at Yale and Hermon is at home.

Mrs. James Alexander and daughter Edith live in Oakland, as also does the other daughter, Mrs. Tomlinson. Dr. Edgar Alexander resides in San Francisco and Mr. Frank A. Alexander at Eleele, Kauai.

Mrs. S. T. Alexander came in March to spend a few weeks in her old Island home among her many friends. At her beautiful home in Piedmont she has two of her daughters with her, and her son, W. M. Alexander, lives near. Mrs. C. H. Alexander still makes her home in Oakland but Miss Helen A. Alexander is in Honolulu, having opened up the Laniakea Tea Rooms on Alakea Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickey left in the early summer for their new home in Oakland. They have been well but the long illness of Mrs. Grace Dickey Merrill's youngest son has caused great care and anxiety. Not till next year can we tell of the expected gathering of the Dickey clans. Mrs. Belle Dickey Dole, with her husband and five little folks, is in Honolulu, looking young and pretty as a bride. The new daughter is named Barbara Dole. C. W. Dickey was on Maui in January planning the new Maui High School. Our treasurer, Judge L. A. Dickey of Kauai, visits Honolulu occasionally.

Miss Agnes Alexander is still in Japan. Miss Mary spent part of her summer with her brother's family in Honolulu, and much time with her cousin, Mrs. Martha Alexander Waterhouse, on Tantalus, where the air is full of ozone, and the views beyond compare. And here lived "Jack"—a real "knight of ye olden time" who outdid Don Quixote in threading the deep forest paths and wading Tantalus bogs to carry the milk of human kindness to old folks marooned for a little time among the rainbows.

Andrews (L.).—After the death of Judge Hardy, his daughter, Mrs. Margaret Hardy Dean, remained in Lihue with her son, D. Wm. Dean, till his marriage in July. She then went to Berkeley to be with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins and their three little boys. Mr. Wm. Hardy is in Honolulu, having bought the house formerly owned by Mrs. Bicknell on Young Street. Mr. Walter A. Hardy resides at Keanae, Maui.

Mr. Robert W. Andrews may be seen six days in the week at the Old Mission Home, twice on Sundays at Central Union Church service and in the afternoon superintending the Maemae Sunday School, where his father, Judge Andrews, used to preach in the long ago. Carl B. Andrews, Chief Engineer of the Oahu Railway and Land Co., is this year Chairman of the Hawaiian Engineering Association. His professional reputation has called him into the service of the Board of Harbor Commissioners in some problems which have arisen in connection with harbor improvements. Mrs. Carl had news in January of the death of her father, Rev. J. M. Merrill, formerly of Oberlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorrin Andrews visited Mr. Andrews' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Andrews of Brooklyn, N. Y., and returned for Christmas. Mr. Andrews is a member of the present legislature. His brother, Tom Andrews, has seen service on the Mexican border. Lorrin Andrews, Jr., is in Punahou.

Mrs. Mary Andrews Nott writes long, interesting letters, drawing word pictures of her children and her friends—Annie Brigman working in her studio beside a roaring fire; Mary Nott holding a "recital" and "party" at her home, for her little music pupils; Sarah Nott with her sewing and household duties, her "short stories" and her correspondence course; Lorrin and his wife in their automobile, happy and well; and Elizabeth and her husband, Walter Hough, carrying their mother back and forth in their machine to their home in Sacramento. She speaks of her dear friends Ellen Weaver and Jennie Armstrong, of "Patty Alexander" in her beautiful home with its banks of heliotrope six feet high and every kind of choice shrub and flower, and of others, all enshrined in her heart and wrapped about with her love.

Andrews (C. B.).—Miss Lucy Andrews writes from Orange, N. J.: "Mrs. Fanny Andrews Shepard, Miss Florence Alma Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Riggs and their two boys, Lorrin and Douglas, are living together in the same house at the water's edge at Beirut, Syria. Rev. Ernest Riggs is Principal of the Preparatory Department of Syrian Protestant College which now has over 300 pupils. This party will come to the States when the opportunity opens."

Lorrin Andrews Shepard is "resident student" at the New York Hospital for Ruptured and Crippled, located at 33 E. 42d Street. His work there is giving anesthetics, but he is still a student at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and has another year there after this one, which closes in May.

My brother Samuel died in Chicago some years ago. His two daughters are living. The younger one is Mrs. B. Innis and her address is Galesburg, Mich. They have a milk-farm and supply cream to the Battle Creek Sanitarium. Louise is the mother of three beautiful children. Mr. Innis is a graduate of Michigan University, but overworked and lost his health—went to the farm to recover it. He is anxious to go into active Christian service in the Y. M. C. A. The other daughter is Mrs. Mabel Andrews Barber. She has a fine boy, Clarence, Jr., about ten years of age. Mabel is teaching at Bridgeport, Conn. She is a graduate of U. of M. and a very successful teacher of history.

I send all of my money to Mr. Frank H. Higgins, Treasurer of the A. B. C. F. M., Boston—every dollar I can spare from the necessities of life. It is divided between the hospital, the college and Armenian relief in Aintab. I have often dreamed of going back to the beautiful land of my birth, to enjoy the friends of my family, but in these days it is no place to forget the terrible realities of war and suffering. You are living in a fool's paradise unless you—good citizens of America—are making superhuman efforts (a partnership of God and man) to make loyal citizens and earnest Christians of the missionary kind out of the 40,000 or more Japanese that you have at the Islands. I do not know of anything else that will save the Islands from the most sanguinary struggle of their history." * * * We are sorry we must omit half this letter. Next year we hope to hear from Miss Lorain Andrews, the Kilbourne family, and of the safe return of the Shepards.

Armstrong (R.).—Mrs. E. A. Weaver writes of her sister, Miss Armstrong, and herself, so pleasantly located at "Hotel Carlton," Berkeley, of a charming visit from Mrs. F. S. Cooke, of other dear Kamainas whom she met, and of the wonderful lecture privileges in Berkeley. She encloses a clipping from which we quote the following:

"Ashland, Aug. 16.

"One of the largest social events held in this section for many years occurred today, when Miss Margaret Marshall Armstrong, daughter of the late Gen. S. C. Armstrong of Hampton Institute Va., was married to Rev. Arthur Howe of New York City. The ceremony was performed on Chocorua Island in Squam Lake at Holderness. On this island is an outdoor chapel used by summer residents who visit Squam Lakes. Here they were married by Dr. H. B. Frissell of Hampton Institute at high noon, the guests being landed by power-boats. The weather was ideal and the outdoor chapel was decorated elaborately with wild flowers and ferns. Miss Armstrong was given in marriage by her brother, Ensign D. W. Armstrong of the battleship Arkansas. Mr. Howe was attended by his brother, Harold Howe of New York City. The maid of honor was Miss Mabel Howe, sister of the groom, who was handsomely gowned in yellow, with green and white bouquet. The bride wore white taffeta and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and maidenhair ferns." There were eight ushers, and the eight bridesmaids were dressed in green and carried wild flowers. Music was furnished by the Hampton Institute students who sang the Lohengrin and Mendelssohn choruses. A wedding breakfast was served immediately at Camp Rockywold. Rev. and Mrs. Howe will be at home at Loomis Institute, Windsor, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Weaver are in Honolulu. Mrs. Weaver has been particularly active in the College Club, trying to get Federal inspection of the schools of Hawaii. Their daughter Mary is planning her first trip away from home, a visit to her grandmother in California.

Mrs. Clarisse Weaver Jones and her husband visited the Islands. Their son Sherman is making a fine record as an athlete and student and is quite a chum with his father, Mr. Jones.

Bailey (E.).—On Nov. 23rd Mrs. Susie Bailey Andrews wrote a most interesting letter from Hilo, in which she said, "George is at home with us at present. He is one of the U. S. A. engineer corps, stationed at Waipio, this island, and will be going back as soon as the 'scrap about the breakwater' is settled. We are so glad to have him with us. He is so kind and helpful, especially to May and her three girls. May is teaching at Kurtistown, about twelve miles from Hilo. Her eldest daughter is with her, also teaching. George is very anxious to get a 'Missionary Album', as he has never seen one." You can imagine with what sorrow we read about two weeks later that George Bailey had suffered a stroke of paralysis on Dec. 2nd, his whole left side being affected. Surely his mother and sister have the sympathy of all the Cousins.

A Christmas greeting came from the C. A. Baileys, but we have had no word from Mr. Wm. Bailey, nor from Mr. and Mrs. Bazata.

In a letter just received from Mrs. Lucy D. Bailey, she tells of the death of her son Robert W. Bailey, in Willows, Calif., on Feb. 6, 1917. He was born at Wailuku Sept. 1st, 1873, and was not married.

Baldwin (D.).—Perhaps the greatest event in the Baldwin family this year has been the erection of the Henry Perrine Baldwin Memorial, near Paia, Maui. It is a beautiful stone edifice on the site of the old church where Mr. Baldwin attended regularly for so many years, and assisted in the services. It is also on the old mill site and in the center of the plantation which he established on this mountainside wilderness. Here he experienced his greatest trials, and here he received strength to win in the greatest battles of life. What more fitting than that here should be builded a house of worship for his children and his friends' children to future generations?

Mr. Arthur Baldwin visited again this year his island home. Mr. H. A. Baldwin and family and Mr. F. F. Baldwin, president of the Polo Association, spent some time at the Coast. H. A. Baldwin is a member of the present Legislature. It is reported that F. F. Baldwin and H. A. Baldwin have bought the Island of Lanai for a cattle ranch. Dr. Baldwin and Mr. S. A. Baldwin still make their homes on Maui.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Baldwin made a trip to the mainland, and Mrs. Baldwin spent a part of the summer among her many friends in Honolulu.

Young Dwight Baldwin will graduate at Yale in June. Miss Edith Baldwin has been teaching in Wailuku this year.

Bingham (H.).—Dr. Hiram Bingham spent the summer with the Yale men at Camp Tobyhama, on the mountains of Pennsylvania. There were 13,000 men, half of whom were Yale men. Dr. Bingham was "Captain of Headquarters Co.", and looked after the commissary department and drills. It was a strenuous undertaking but his experience in the wilds of Peru rendered him equal to its duties.

Miss Katherine Reynolds makes her home with Dr. and Mrs. Bingham. She has made two trips to visit her brother in St. Augustine.

Mrs. Sutherland is quite happy in having her four daughters and one son in Honolulu. Mr. A. H. Jones, husband of Juliette Cooke Jones, made a hurried trip to Michigan only to find he was too late to see his father. Mrs. Clara Bingham Arledge and little daughter visited her friends in Minneapolis and was met later by Mr. Arledge and their other child. After seeing Chicago and other places they attended an Arledge reunion at the old plantation in Mississippi. Miss Pearl Sutherland is teaching music at Punahou and is likely to form still closer ties in Honolulu. Miss May Sutherland is with Miss Alexander at Laniakea, and the youngest son, Charles, is at Punahou Academy. The eldest son has taken over his father's business in Minneapolis and the second son expects to graduate at an agricultural college in Oregon in May or June.

Bishop (A.).—"Mother Bishop", wife of Dr. Sereno Bishop, the last of the mission band, is still among us, revered and loved by all. She lives in beautiful Manoa Valley with her daughter, Della Bishop Shaw, her son-in-law and three grand-daughters. The latter have all been educated abroad and are now in Honolulu, Miss Jessie busy with her art and Misses Ruth and Margaret teaching in the Normal School. All are in Bible-school work.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw are now renewing the springtime of life on the mainland, visiting friends and relatives, among them Dr. John S. Bishop and wife at Forest Grove, Oregon. Miss Helen Bishop is at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, and her brother, J. Egbert Bishop, at Clark University.

Mother Bishop on Jan. 12th, her ninety-first birthday, seemed younger than a year ago. She was especially interested in the old records now being arranged in the Mission Memorial vault, as she has some valuable records she would like to deposit there. She thinks the new Document Files will be the safest and most accessible way of storing these family treasures. She is also deeply interested in the idea of making the Chamberlain House a "living memorial" to the Fathers and Mothers.

Bond (E.).—E. C. Bonds writes, "Wife and I have moved from 5460 Boyd Ave., Oakland, to 2600 Benvenue Ave., Berkeley. I am glad to receive the annual report but am no longer able to read it—I am almost too blind to run my typewriter." Robert Bond is at 5 Eton Court, Berkeley.

Dr. and Mrs. B. D. Bond are enjoying a visit from their son B. Howell Bond of Cincinnati. Miss Alice is doing excellent work at Kohala Girls' School.

Miss Carrie Bond spent some weeks on the mainland last May and June, and returned in time to attend the Punahou Pageant.

Mr. James Bicknell, Auditor, has sold his place on Kinau Street and is building on his new lot near Punahou.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brian and little Torlogh David William moved from Kohala in June and are at present with Mrs. Bicknell in her large house on Punahou Street. Mrs. O'Brian is teaching at Kaiulani School.

Castle (S. N.).—Sorrow has come to the family of Mary Castle Hitchcock in the death last February of her grandson Randolph Hitchcock, a promising young student in the Junior year at Harvard University.

Mrs. Eloise Castle Williams passed away in January at the home of her daughter Eloise Castle Marx in Nuuanu Valley. A life of loving service for others and wonderful patience and fortitude through a lingering illness of great suffering is the tribute paid to her memory by those who knew and loved her. Ethelwin Castle spent the winter in Florida. She and her sister Claire Williams have a home on Wyllie Street next to that of their sister, Mrs. Bruce Cartwright.

Hattie Castle Coleman, with her friend Miss Ermine Cross, spent last summer in New Rochelle, N. Y., in the home of Mrs. Coleman's son. He in turn came to Honolulu in the spring for a short visit, bringing his little son Northrop to make a longer visit with his grandmother while the mother has a rest from household cares for the regaining of health.

Of the W. R. Castle family, Alfred and wife made an extended trip to the mainland in the summer, visiting in the East and, together with Beatrice, who joined them later on the Coast, continuing the trip to Alaska. W. R. with wife and Beatrice, spent a couple of weeks at the volcano at the time of its great activity this spring. A new edition of "Hawaii—Past and Present," by W. R. Castle, Jr., has just been published.

The George Castles had a delightful visit last summer from their daughter Margaret and her husband, Professor Alfred Tozzer, of Harvard University.

James Castle and wife spent the winter in Winchendon and other places, returning to their Waikiki home last March. Harold and wife also made a trip East last fall, being absent about four months.

The Westervelts spent the summer of 1916 on Hawaii, visiting the volcano and other places of interest.

Helen Castle Mead and husband, after a year of work, expect to spend next summer in Honolulu. Their son Henry will probably come with them.

Elinor Castle and her mother are located in Chicago where Elinor is attending the University.

Chamberlain (D.).—H. St. Clair Hathaway, Rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Morristown, Pa., has sent us a carefully prepared genealogical record of his grandfather, Daniel Chamberlain, who came to Hawaii in 1820, on the bark "Thaddeus." This record goes back to their arrival in England with "Wm. the Conqueror." Three generations later the ancestor was Lord Chamberlain to King Stephen, and the surname Chamberlain has since that day been that of the whole Chamberlain family in England and America. After thirteen generations, Wm. Chamberlain and two brothers emigrated to America, and his great-great-grandson was the Daniel Chamberlain who came to Hawaii—one of our honored missionary Fathers. Later records are given, valuable for our "Big Book" of Genealogies.

This incident, which we had not before seen recorded, is related in connection with the landing. "It is reported that the Queen of the Islands, herself briefly clad, swam out to the vessel, was much attracted by the Chamberlain baby, and asked, as a pledge of good faith on the part of the ship's company, that the mother of the child would allow her to take the baby on shore, promising to return it in good order the following day. Naturally the mother demurred and retired for prayer in order that she might know God's will in the matter. After a brief interval she returned, strengthened in the decision that it was God's will. The old Queen swam to the shore with the baby and did not return for several days, but finally came with the child and extended the hospitality of the Islands."

Chamberlain (L.).—Rev. H. W. Chamberlain resides at 8915 Exchange Ave., S. Chicago. From a S. Chicago newspaper clipping we quote, "The resignation of Rev. Horace W. Chamberlain as pastor of the First Congregational Church was an unpleasant surprise to the people, coming as it did just as the church was beginning to make such fine headway." "Mr. Chamberlain did splendid work here. His resignation was based wholly upon Mrs. Chamberlain's health." The church while under his charge had increased in membership and the Bible-school had more than doubled its numbers.

W. W. Chamberlain spent a part of the summer at the Coast. His family did not accompany him this time, as they did four years ago. While there he made a flying trip to Chicago to visit his brother and sister.

There was a wedding in Dr. Ives' family, Pecatonica, Ill., on Sept. 9, when Miss Esther Ives, the eldest daughter, became Mrs. William S. Spooner of Oak Park, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Worth O. Aiken of Makawao, Maui, were also visitors to the mainland this year. Mrs. Aiken is a daughter of the late Rev. James Chamberlain.

Clark (E. W.).—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Day (Julia Lyman), after residing for about fourteen years in Los Angeles, Cal., have removed to Bridgeport, Conn.

The Scott family was called to mourn the death of Richard L. Hughes of Eleele, Kauai. His young wife, Margaret Scott Hughes, and two little children have returned to her parents in Hilo. Little Margaret Hughes was born May 30th at Eleele.

Mrs. Severance of Hilo has improved somewhat in health. Mr. Jonathan Austin has removed to Maryland. Young Stafford Austin, so popular as a student at Punahou, is now at Cornell University. To Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Horner (Marion C. Austin) was born in Hilo a little daughter, Violet Alice Horner.

Rev. and Mrs. Baker of Kealakekua had a most wonderful vacation, riding through the air in a hydroaeroplane, going eighty miles into the desert and there traveling in an automobile over a lake of salt, crossing the Arctic Circle into Alaska and seeing the midnight sun, some of the largest glaciers in the world and mountains covered with perpetual snow. They visited the old capital, Sitka, and took dinner with Rev. Buchanan and family, formerly of Kohala, visited the Presbyterian Mission School and the Sheldon Jackson Museum. An account of this grand trip may be found in "The Friend" of October, 1916.

Coan (T.).—The little heartsome note from Mrs. Sarah Coan Waters, last year, coming in the same annual report as the announcement of her home-going, was treasured as a gem by those who knew her and mourned her loss.

We miss, this year, the much-appreciated annual message from T. M. Coan.

Every year an annual report is sent to Mr. Raymond C. Coan and no response comes back. We wonder whether he has removed from Regina.

Conde' (D. T.).—A note was received in May, 1916, from Dr. Samuel L. Conde'. He was "trying to recover from a severe attack of grippe." He says, "My good wife and myself have been having more than usual illness during the past year. In addition to this my loss of eyesight has made it necessary for me to remain at home much of the time. This has deprived me of the privilege of reading and writing, so that I am obliged to depend upon the assistance of someone else in this matter." "There have been no changes of any of the Conde' family since I last wrote you, except that my brother Charles is now living at 405 North 4th Street, Camden, N. J."

"Kindly extend a hearty 'aloha' from me to all the Hawaiian Cousins you may meet."

Cooke (A. S.).—J. P. Cooke, president of "Alexander & Baldwin" and of the "Hawaiian Commercial Company," and Mrs. Cooke are now on the mainland. Their children spent their vacation on the Islands, Platt and Henry returning to Yale and Emily to Westover. Douglas and Fred. are at home.

Mrs. J. B. Atherton has her hands full mothering the Salvation Army Home, Kawaiahao Seminary and other adopted children. Miss Kate Atherton was home in the summer from her long stay at the Coast. Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Atherton have gained another son-in-law as Miss Laura, at a beautiful home wedding on June 8th, became the bride of Mr. James Morgan of Honolulu. Miss Violet had an enjoyable trip to Australia and New Zealand in the company of Mr. and Mrs. Frear and their daughter Virginia. A daughter, Barbara, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Guard on March 2nd. Mr. and Mrs. Richards and Miss Ruth spent some months on the mainland and came home Dec. 23rd.

Of Mrs. Anna Rice Cooke's family, C. Montague Cooke and family have returned from abroad. C. H. Cooke and G. P. Cooke are members of the present legislature. Mr. George P. Cooke and his wife, Sophie Judd Cooke, have a beautiful home on Makiki Heights, to which they welcomed, in July, another son, Stephen Montague Cooke. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooke made quite a trip through the States and Canada and returned in October to their new home in Nuuanu Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cooke have been blessed with another daughter, Mary Theodora Cooke. Miss Alice Cooke returned from a long visit with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace M. Alexander, and on March 18th she was married at her mother's mountain home, Luakaha, to Mr. Philip Spalding, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Hans Isenberg of Kauai.

Mr. A. F. Cooke and daughters were glad to welcome home Mrs. Cooke apparently much improved in health. Miss Margaret Cooke has had charge of the music in the public schools, and made quite a success of handling the vast choruses at the Carnival. Mrs. Melanphy and her two little girls occupy part of her father's large house.

Damon (S. C.).—In June of 1916, Mr. S. M. Damon resigned his trusteeship of the Bishop Estate, held for so many years. Miss Esme Damon, home from Westover, spent her vacation at beautiful Moanalua. Her brother attends the military school at San Rafael, Cal.

Mr. Fred. B. Damon is in the Bank of Hawaii. His brother, W. F. Damon, has changed his address to 4828 Worcester Ave., Chicago, and Mr. Maurice is in Albany, N. Y. Mrs. Giffard is in Honolulu and Miss Ethel Damon returned from her year's leave of absence in time to personate, so well, the "Spirit of Punahou" at the Punahou Pageant in June.

Mrs. F. W. Damon visited her daughter, Mrs. Putnam, on Kauai, in the summer. She is now at Moanalua caring for two of Mr. Henry Damon's children while Mrs. Henry Damon is on a trip to the mainland. Mr. Cyril Damon is in the Guardian Trust Co., Miss Vera in kindergarten work, Miss Daphne in Boston and Bernard is at Harvard University.

Dibble (S.).—Mrs. Grace P. Haven of Maunaolu writes, "I had a most delightful visit with my aunt Clara Dibble Inch and her daughter, Cousin Agnes, at Ocean Grove, N. J., on my way to Hartford, and when returning visited them again in their winter home at Atlantic City. My Aunt Clara is not at all well but Cousin Agnes is all devotion in caring for her mother. Cousin Robert Inch is a fine lawyer in New York City. He is married and has a son that is the joy of them all. Cousin Agnes is an earnest worker in the missions connected with the Presbyterian Church in Atlantic City." The latest letter tells of another pleasant summer at Ocean Beach and her aunt's improved health. Mrs. Inch says, "I have appreciated 'The Friend' which has come so regularly and kept us in touch with Hawaiian matters.

Dimond (H.).—Through Mrs. E. R. Dimond we hear that Mrs. Mary Dimond Tobin (Mrs. Joseph S. Tobin) is living at the Carlton Apartments, Powell St., San Francisco, and that her sister, Mrs. Eleanor S. Dimond Silverston, can be reached through her sister's address.

Mrs. Henry Waterhouse and daughter occupy their new house in upper Nuuau Valley. Mr. Albert Waterhouse is managing the Endau Development Company, Straits Settlements. Mrs. Albert Waterhouse has gone to Singapore to join her husband and expects to return with him about October.

Mrs. Wood sent artistic snow-scene cards for Christmas greetings.

Dole (D.).—Judge and Mrs. S. B. Dole seem ever busy with those things which stand for civic righteousness and the betterment of Honolulu. The Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Humane Society and Associated Charities are among the children of their adoption, and recently they have thrown the weight of their influence into the struggle for the abatement of vice in our midst.

Three newcomers have been welcomed into the George Dole family. Stephen Herbert Dole, son of Wm. Herbert Dole and Helen Miller Dole, was born June 6, 1916, at West Orange, N. J., Janet Dudley Dole, daughter of Norman Eliot Dole and Mrs. Dorothy Dole, was born at Alameda, Cal., Oct. 1st, 1916, and Clara Dole, daughter of George Ethelbert and Effie Kearne Dole, was born at Riverside, Cal., on March 18, 1917. "There are once more two Clara Doles in Riverside."

The George Dole-Rowell family send greetings and want to know if any other family in the Cousinhood can boast of forty-two children and grandchildren.

A daughter, Barbara Dole, was born on Oct. 10th to Mr. James D. Dole and Belle Dickey Dole. The Rev. Charles Dole has been lecturing here on "Peace." He and Mrs. Dole are stopping with their son, James D. Dole.

Emerson (J. S.).—A card from Dr. J. B. Emerson, written at St. Petersburg, Florida, says, "We broke up our home of thirty-five years, at 128 Henry St., Detroit, and I gave up active practice in May, 1916. We are now wanderers—have spent the past winter in Florida, where it is warm and only forty-eight hours from home." Their address will be in care of Paul E. Emerson, 51 Mason St., Newark, New York.

Mrs. J. S. Emerson, wife of one of our Board of Managers, is giving practically her whole time to the Belgian sufferers—raising money, sending boxes of clothing, knitting and writing letters. She claims about one hundred and sixty godsons to whom she tries to write every month. Young Oliver takes time from his studies and land-shells to be interested in his forbears and Cousins.

Arthur W. Emerson, only son of the late Dr. N. B. Emerson is in New York City. Some of his paintings were on exhibition at the Panama Exposition at San Francisco last year. His mother, with her sister, Miss Peirce, are in Honolulu.

Rev. O. P. Emerson writes that he has retired from pastorates and may be found at 20 Hawthorne Road, Brookline, Mass., and adds for the Cousins, "When in Boston, call and see us."

Forbes (C.).—General Theodore F. Forbes passed away at "The Marlboro," his home in Washington City, D. C., on March 9, 1917. Mr. W. J. Forbes and family spent their summer vacation at the Peninsula, by the sea. Misses Harriet and Maria had a short rest at Hilo. Mr. W. J. Forbes has resigned his position as treasurer of Central Union Bible-school after holding the place for twenty-six years. That is about the time his grandfather Chamberlain had charge of the finances of the Mission beginning with 1823, and there are many volumes and packages of his carefully preserved records still to be found in the Cousins' vault in the Mission Memorial. Mr. Forbes and Mr. W. W. Chamberlain come naturally by their skill at accounts.

Green (J. S.).—Secretary Thayer resigned the duties and honors of his position as Territorial Secretary, and went back to the more private practice of law.

Miss Laura Green has been able to visit Mrs. Thayer and have the benefit of the inspiring view from Alewa Heights.

Mrs. May Green Wilcox, as superintendent of Kawaiahao Bible-school, quickly gets hold of all up-to-date methods, and the Normal Class in that school sends out graduates that do excellent work throughout the Islands.

Gulick (P. J.).—Dr. S. L. Gulick has sent out three pamphlets that are highly recommended, “A Comprehensive Immigration Policy and Program,” “Asia’s Appeal to America” and “The Pacific Coast and the New Oriental Policy.”

Rev. O. H. Gulick has conferred with Mr. Revell of N. Y. City in regard to publishing his “Pilgrims of Hawaii” and it will be out before many months.

Dr. and Mrs. John T. Gulick have welcomed two more grandchildren this year. Their son Addison and his wife of Columbia, Missouri, have a little daughter, Mary Buckingham Gulick, born April 11th, 1916, and Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker’s little son, John Gulick Whitaker, was born in China, Jan. 1st, 1917. Because of the illness of their daughter, the Rev. Whitakers were obliged to return to Honolulu. They arrived Feb. 27th. Rev. R. B. Whitaker of Los Gatos, uncle of our Rev. R. B. Whitaker, has been in Honolulu, writing a biography of Dr. John Gulick, who has just celebrated his 85th birthday.

Miss Julia Gulick is very happy. A long-cherished plan for a much-needed home for Japanese children has materialized on Nuuanu Street, been dedicated and occupied, and is doing much good.

Hall (E. O.).—The Halls of Hawaii have enlarged their borders, for away in Bangor, Maine, Oct. 13th, 1916, a son, Thomas Seymour Hall, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin O. Hall, and in Honolulu, Oct. 19th, a daughter, Helen Louise Jones, came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Austin Jones. Mr. Philip Hall is tenor in Central Union Church choir. Miss Charlotte Hall is one of the secretaries in the Y. W. C. A. She and her mother spent a vacation of two weeks at the volcano. Mrs. MacIntyre has been very helpful as a member of the H. M. C. Library Committee.

Mr. P. C. Jones has lost by death a beloved sister.

Mrs. A. Lewis represents her mother in the Woman’s Society of C. U. Church, being treasurer of the C. R. Bishop Fund.

Miss Ruth Gartley returned to college after a happy vacation spent in Honolulu. Miss Eleanor is taking a course in Domestic Science at the College of Hawaii.

Mrs. Belle Jones and Miss Margaret are at Vernon Court, Newton, Mass., and Misses Helen and Catherine are at Smith College.

Mr. Frank H. Palmer is Councilor of the Braintree (Mass.) School of Religious Education. He writes, "My interest in the Cousins' Society, acquired at the age of 23, does not waver at 64. Spiritual impulses are immortal. They never lose their directive power."

Hitchcock (H. R.).—The friends of young Randolph Hitchcock were made very sad by the news of his death on Feb. 6th. He was one of that trio of brothers so popular at Punahou, and admired in athletic, social and civic circles. With a college education almost completed he seemed well-fitted for a life worth living, and such young men are sadly needed now. His brother Rexford, who graduated at Harvard in 1914, has seen service for his country on the Mexican border. William, the other brother, was married in September to Miss Helen Irmgard Roulf. Miss Harriet Hitchcock, an aunt, went from Hilo to help care for Randolph in his illness.

D. Howard Hitchcock has opened a studio on the old Allen premises, near Laniakea, and his excellent canvases of Hawaiian scenes have been greatly admired. His dioramas, prepared for the Carnival, were pronounced wonderful.

Mrs. Cora Hitchcock Townsend has just passed through Honolulu from Manila, P. I., on her way to the mainland. She made a hasty trip to Maui to visit her son, David, who graduated in 1915 a Civil Engineer, and is now on the Wailuku plantation. His brother is at Vineland School, N. J.

Miss Almeda Townsend was married, June 1, at Manila to Mr. George Goss, and they are living in Springfield, Mass. Mrs. Townsend will rejoin her husband at Manila in the Autumn.

Hyde (C. M.).—Our dear Mrs. Hyde writes, "I am sending a photograph of Charlie and his little daughters for the Cousins' collection. These little girls are the joy and delight of my life and they think their "grandmère" is all right. I have never had any little girls come into my home life before, and it is a greater happiness than I had ever dreamed it could be. I have made both of them Cousins.

My grand-daughter, Ruth Hyde, Henry's daughter, graduated from Vassar with high honors last June, and I was privileged to be present on that occasion. She is now studying for her Ph. D. at Harvard, and acting as Secretary for the Municipal Research Department.

My cousin, Miss Bliss (Harriet M.) has passed on into the new life.

No place seems so much like home to me as Honolulu, and I live there in spirit much of the time. The friends connected with my happy life and home there will ever have their places in memory's halls as in my dreams."

Ives (M.).—Mr. Harlan P. Ives of Danbury, Conn., sends this message of greeting, "May the choicest of Heaven's blessings rest on all the dear Cousins." We would gladly hear more from this family whose forbears figured very extensively in the long ago.

Johnson (E.).—In September the body of Ellen A. Johnson went to its long sleep and was laid to rest, but the spirit—we cannot but wonder what the awakening must have been. She loved life. Flowers bloomed profusely for her, birds sang without fear, and always her pets gathered about her. Hers was a loving heart and the awakening, where all is love and beauty, must have been intellectually and spiritually glorious.

Miss Frances Bindt is living at Peninsula with her aunt Frances Johnson and teaching in the Pearl City schools.

Mr. Rudolph Bindt of the Advertiser, and Mrs. Bindt, have a little son, Frank August, born Oct. 15, 1916. Their eldest son, Henry, has one year more before graduating at the school for blind in Berkeley. He seems to be a very promising boy, for besides studying history, algebra, German and rhetoric, he is taking instruction in Sloyd work, piano-tuning, broom- and hammock-making and story-writing. He thinks that if an Industrial School for Blind should be established in Honolulu, he would like to be an instructor. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fyfe and their two boys are in Honolulu.

Judd (G. P.).—"Aunt Lizzie" Wilder remains at Eastbank, a magnet to draw the family continually to their Island home. Mr. G. P. Wilder has been back and forth to the mainland. He is a member of the present Legislature. The family of S. G. Wilder has been abroad most of the year. His son, Alatau Wilder, as a Boy Scout has passed about twenty tests, and won many merit badges, being now an Eagle Scout. He returned to Hawaii in June. His uncle, James Wilder, lovingly called by the boys "The Big Scout," has been giving lectures in Boston on "camping," "camp cooking" and "scout-craft." Miss Helen Wilder spends a part of her winters with her mother. Mrs. Laura Wilder Wight is on her way home from Germany, we hear.

The death of Mr. Francis Mills Swanzy on Feb. 26, 1917, after a long illness, is a sad bereavement, and to Mrs. Swanzy, her daughters and their many friends the Cousins extend their hearty sympathy. Mrs. Swanzy's mother, Mrs. Emily C. Judd, is now on the Islands. Cards are out for the marriage in April of Miss Nora H. Swanzy and Mr. Geo. Young Bennett.

In Mrs. Agnes Judd's family there have been three welcome arrivals, that of James Robert Judd, Jr., in N. Y. City, Emma Judd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Judd, and Stephen Montague Cooke, son of G. P. Cooke and Sophie Judd Cooke. Dr. Albert Judd and wife, after a few months spent on the mainland, returned March 20, accompanied by Dr. James R. Judd, wife and son. Dr. Judd had been for two years in Red Cross Hospital work in France. Charles S. Judd, Superintendent of Forestry in Hawaii, Rev. Henry P. Judd, one of the secretaries of the Hawaiian Board, and Mr. Lawrence Judd of Theo. H. Davies & Co., were all in Honolulu to welcome them.

In Nutley, N. J., there was born to Mr. Lewellyn Pratt and Mrs. Helen Dickson Pratt a son, Wilson Judd Pratt. Scott Pratt, son of J. S. B. Pratt, is in the Experiment Station in Honolulu. His sister Hester spent her first summer vacation from Smith College at home. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, after a six months' absence, returned in October. Invitations for the marriage of their son, Dickson Nott, to Miss Eloise Wichman are out for April 11th. Mr. Herbert M. Dowsett and Mrs. Laura Nott Dowsett welcomed a little daughter in July, Joan Montgomery Dowsett.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Galt, after some months spent with their sons on the mainland, came home in March. A Carter reunion was held in the East during their absence. The George R. Carters have decided to remain away another year.

Kinney (H.).—Superintendent of Schools, H. W. Kinney, is one of the very busy men of the Territory, carrying a heavy load of responsibility. His mother, Mrs. Selma Kinney, resides with his family on 9th Ave., Kaimuki. Miss Maud Kinney lives at "The MacDonald" on Punahou Street.

Loomis (E.).—Miss May Loomis of Fruitland Park, Fla., likes the climate much better than that of Ypsilanti, Mich., but notwithstanding economy and hard labor she finds that raising chickens and watermelons with darkies for near neighbors is not profitable business. She has lately joined a Presbyterian Church at Leesburg, some distance away.

Lyman (D. B.).—Hon. F. S. Lyman of Hilo, with his daughter, Miss Ellen Lyman, spent some weeks in Honolulu visiting their many friends. Miss Lyman gave to the H. M. C. Society some annual reports—odd numbers left after completing her file. Frank Lyman, son of Dr. Francis Lyman of Kauai, is in Punahou Academy, as is Miss Kathryn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Lyman of Hilo. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lyman are mourning the death of their beloved mother, Mrs. David Dayton, who left them on March 19 for the better land.

Norman Lyman is a member of the Legislature. Lieut. Albert Lyman has become Capt. Lyman and is at present in Cincinnati. Mrs. Clarence Lyman has returned to the Islands and is on Kauai with Mrs. S. W. Wilcox. Charles Lyman is 2nd Lieut. of Infantry, U. S. A., stationed at Fort Shafter. Ensign David B. Lyman of Kohala has been promoted.

Lyons (L.).—From a letter from Lucia Lyons to a friend in Honolulu, we are privileged to quote, “Papa is still going about his work and interesting himself in everything in the world as much as ever, although he has not much strength for outside things. Mamma was very sick in August and has not fully regained her strength even yet. I am well and always occupied. Through ‘The Friend’ we keep in touch with the church and all its activities, and the Cousins’ report keeps us posted in regard to the people we really know best.” “Of course it is hard to keep track of the families unless they are prompt about making the children members of the Cousins’ Society! There ought to be a law compelling them to do so, for the benefit of the absent Cousins.”

Mrs. Richardson of Hilo visits Honolulu occasionally and spent some time here during the Punahou Pageant. We are fortunate in having Mrs. Doyle as one of the efficient Library Committee of the Society.

Paris (J. D.).—Miss Anna Paris, one of our Board of Managers, intellectual, refined, companionable and loving, passed from earth on Jan. 31st, but as she herself wrote of one of the sainted mothers, “Death can not claim her. Life now comes

To crown the years, to open wide
Heaven’s portals. Lo, she enters in;
We see the human glorified.”

Mrs. Mary Paris Green is happy in the possession of a daughter, for her son, John Harrison Green, was married in October to Miss Margaret S. Haynes. It was apparently a romantic, love-at-first-sight engagement. She was a kindergartner, a friend of Miss Cross who was stopping in Oakland with Mrs. Coleman. The young people met at Mrs. Coleman's house, and there they were later married.

Miss Ella Paris of Kealakekua is a very busy woman, superintending the Sunday School, assisting in the work of the church, holding a "hoike" at the Hookena S. S. and looking after the sick, while much of the time her house is filled with guests. Incidentally we hear her called an excellent hostess whose guests learn to sleep and rest and put on flesh.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Paris have another grandson, Dexter Holly Smith, whose parents are helping Mr. A. H. Smith to look after the old people of Lunalilo Home while Mrs. A. H. Smith is visiting on the mainland.

Parker (B. W.).—Rev. H. H. Parker seems still to be in the prime of life after fifty-three years in charge of Kawaiahao Church. He keeps quite abreast of the times and gives his congregation the best that is to be had. Moreover, he stands between the past and the present, speaking the Hawaiian language accurately, and understanding the Hawaiian people and loving them as no "malihini" could do. Mr. Parker is very much sought after by those in sorrow who have no regular pastor, and also for performing the marriage service he is quite popular.

Miss Mary Parker, as trustee of Lunalilo Home is a faithful guardian of its interests, and Miss Carrie Parker is guardian of their own home.

Rice (W. H.).—Mr. and Mrs. W. Hyde Rice spent their forty-fourth wedding anniversary in Berkeley with their daughter, Mrs. Mary Rice Scott. Many cabled congratulations were received by them.

To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henry Rice came in February a little daughter, Helen Flora Rice.

Charles A. Rice was appointed by Governor Pinkham a member of the Territorial Land Commission of Hawaii. The Misses Edith and Juliette spent their summer vacation on the Islands.

Mrs. Arthur Rice, with daughter Harriet and Master Arthur, returned in October from a two months' visit to Berkeley and Piedmont. They then went with Mr. Rice for a month's stay at Kailua, their new Oahu beach home.

Mr. Harold Rice has purchased the Coruwel Ranch, and will devote himself to the care of it.

Attorney Philip De La Vergne Rice is established as a law practitioner in Lihue.

Rev. and Mrs. Hans Isenberg were in Honolulu in March and Rev. Isenberg performed the marriage ceremony for his cousin, Alice Cooke Spalding.

Mr. Paul Isenberg was married in August to Miss Bertha Kopke. The wedding was celebrated in New York City.

Richards (W.).—Miss Helen Richards Brewer, of Bozeman, Mont., has sent to our Treasurer the name of a new Cousin, Mrs. Florence Bille Somers Brewer, wife of Dr. A. D. Brewer. Dr. Brewer and family live at Edwards, Dawson Co., Montana, and Miss Grace L. Brewer resides with them.

Dr. Hubert L. Clark, of the Museum of Comparative Zoology, Cambridge, Mass., and his son William report themselves from 9 Ashton Place, Cambridge, and point out errors in addresses and names which we are very glad to correct.

News of the death of Mrs. Lyman Richards Williston, on Dec. 16, 1916, has just reached us.

Rogers (E. H.).—Miss Eva Sunter is teaching at Keakeolani, near the Crater Hotel, Hawaii, a school on the mountainside where the climate is unsurpassed. Her brother resides in California, and her sister Mabel was there in charge of her invalid father until his death in September.

Mrs. Zelia Rogers Cockett, wife of P. Cockett, manager of the Harold Rice ranch at Waikapu, called at the Old Mission Home in September. She told of the death of her two brothers, Edward Hitchcock Rogers and Waldemar Rogers, who both died in 1910. Waldemar was married and left two sons and a daughter. The mother kept the baby girl. Mr. and Mrs. Cockett adopted little Edward Hitchcock Rogers, and little Frank Sommerfield Rogers was adopted by his aunt, Mrs. Lizzie Rogers Sommerfield, wife of Mr. Frank Sommerfield of Wailuku.

Rowell (G. B.).—Soon after the death of her brother, Wm. Rowell, Dr. Mary Rowell Stoltz, of Redlands, Cal., spent some weeks in Honolulu. On Jan. 1st of this year Miss Mary Rosalie Stoltz was married at the home of her brother, Herbert R. Stoltz of Palo Alto, Cal., to Mr. Harry Leslie Abell. Their address is 1942 Berkeley Way, Berkeley, Cal. Mr. Abell is a teacher of art in the Oakland Technical High School.

On April 22, 1916, there came to the home of Mr. Elsworth Rogers and Mrs. Jeannie Gay Rogers a son, Stanley Sinclair Rogers.

On June 26, 1916, Stephen Herbert Dole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Herbert Dole, was born at West Orange, N. J., on Oct. 1st, 1916, Janet Dudley Dole came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Dole at Alameda, California, and at Riverside, Cal., March 18, 1917, a daughter, Clara Dole, was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Ethelbert Dole.

Miss Dorothy Rowell spent a few weeks in California, but is in Honolulu again. She has just been appointed Recording Secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions in C. U. Church. Miss Dorothy's sister, Elsie, is at the old homestead in Brooklyn; Miss Alice, head of the Bohemian Settlement Work at Chicago, is taking a year off for rest; Miss Olive is studying Household Administration at the Teacher's College, Columbia, New York City, and Mr. and Mrs. Sanborn are living on an olive ranch in California.

The latest news from the Rowell family is very sad—that of the death of Mrs. Mary Rosalie Stoltz Abell, on March 29, 1917.

Ruggles (S.).—Mrs. F. F. Lewis, a cousin of Mother Ruggles, from Janesville, Wis., who has visited Hawaii twice as a tourist recently, has gone now to a fairer Paradise. Mr. Lewis is again in Honolulu, accompanied by a niece.

Smith (L.).—Mrs. B. F. Dillingham gave a charming talk to the younger Cousins in the Old Mission Home in February. With her winning personality and vivid recollections she was just the one to usher in these yearly meetings of "The Veranda Brigade."

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Frear and Miss Virginia spent July, August and September traveling in Australia and New Zealand. Since then, Mrs. Frear, as president of the Y. W. C. A., has worked hard and devotedly to bring that institution up to its present state of efficiency. She also brought before the people of Kaumakapili Church the cause of the martyred Armenians in Turkey.

In October there came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Dillingham another son, Benjamin Franklin Dillingham.

Mrs. Erdman recently accompanied Mr. Erdman on one of his tours among the small churches of Hawaii, carrying a little organ and delighting the people with her sweet voice. Mr. Erdman has placed before the Cousins the proposition of using the Chamberlain House as a living memorial to the Fathers and Mothers by making of a part of it the home of the Bible Training School for the future gospel ministers of Hawaii.

Smith (J. W.).—Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Smith announced the arrival, on April 11, 1916, of a new grandson, Russell Owen Smith, son of Lorrin K. Smith of Paia, Maui. Mr. Smith's daughters are at present in Honolulu, Mr. H. A. Baldwin being a member of the Legislature, and Mr. S. A. Baldwin's family occupying their beautiful town residence on Nuuanu and Bates Streets.

Five of the Hartwell sisters form a cluster of homes on and around the old Hartwell homestead, but Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Sorenson with their families, spent part of the year on the cool slopes of Mauna Kea, Mr. Carter being manager of the Parker Ranch and Mr. Sorenson assistant manager. Young Ferdinand Hedemann, son of Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Hedemann, arrived in town April 3rd just too late to be numbered in our list of births, as that list closes March 31. Edith and Hartwell Carter spent their summer vacation in the Islands.

Mrs. A. H. Smith is visiting old friends on the mainland whom she had not seen for nearly a score of years. She is also spending some time with her daughter, Miss Alice, teaching at Seneca, N. Y. In the meantime her son Raymond is with Mr. Smith caring for the old people of Lunalilo Home. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Smith have another son, Dexter Holly Smith, born Dec. 28th, 1916.

Mr. A. K. Farley was married in San Francisco Aug. 2, 1916, to Miss Gertrude Pepper.

Mr. Wm. Waterhouse is "very happy and successful in his evangelistic work, and his health is fine." Mrs. Waterhouse writes: "Mr. Lawrence Waterhouse's family are well. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Waterhouse have a baby girl born Feb. 10, and named Eleanor Atwood Waterhouse." Miss Edith Waterhouse is teaching. Capt. and Mrs. Paul B. Waterhouse of the "Galilee Maru," Omi, Japan, have two children. Captain Waterhouse seems to be doing a great and good as well as a very unique work in that isolated region. To illustrate, we quote three sentences from "The Omi Mustard Seed" for December, 1916, "We have held meetings in over 50 towns and villages, visited over 30 primary schools at 20 of which we have made addresses, held special meetings for postmasters, policemen and teachers, besides the public meetings for all. During these meetings we have had present at our different meetings over 15,000 people. * * As a result of this work we are enthusiastically and joyously welcomed by the children wherever we go, and you can see them running from all directions to our landing-places, so that by the time we are made fast our Sunday School has gathered."

Thurston (A.).—L. A. Thurston and family spent the Christmas holidays at Hilo. Mrs. Thurston has been chosen president of the Outdoor Circle for the year 1917. Mr. Robert Thurston is traveling on Kauai and Maui in the interests of the Planters' Experiment Station. Miss Margaret is taking special studies at the College of Hawaii. Lorrin, Jr., is at Lawrenceville School, Mass., and tasting the delights of winter sports, skating, skiing, etc. In a moving picture this winter he saw himself with many old Island friends, surfing at Waikiki.

The Winnes live in the old McIntosh house on Nuuanu near Judd Street. Miss Mary Winne is acting principal of Punahou Preparatory—a difficult position well filled. Miss Jane Winne has charge of the chorus singing at Punahou, and Mr. James Winne is with Alexander & Baldwin.

Mr. Kluegel has been made honorary member of the Hawaiian Engineering Association. Mrs. Kluegel and Miss May have been entertaining the "Mills Club" and some of the dignitaries of Mills College. Miss Pauline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kluegel, is one of the most interested and enthusiastic missionary descendants, but, strange to say, she and quite a number of others, proud of their forbears, have never been made Cousins.

Mr. James Taylor is erecting three up-to-date cottages in the Park tract, Nuuanu Valley, to be leased furnished. Mrs. Taylor has four greenhouses and is installing a $1,500 heating plant to aid in the culture of American Beauty roses and other plants. She has two acres of land under intense cultivation. Their only son, James T. Taylor, Jr., is in school at Berkeley.

Tinker (R.).—From the "Jamestown Evening Herald" and "The Connecticut Western News" we have notices of the death, at Clayton, Mass., on June 30th of the Rev. Joseph Tinker, with sketches of his life. The "News" says of him, "Mr. Tinker was endowed with a rare gift for poetry and a fine sense of humor." "He was of exceptionally sunny disposition and was loved by all who knew him." Mrs. Mary Tinker Harvey writes, "There are few that will remember Joseph, as he did not have the pleasure of re-visiting his birth-place. The Gulicks may be interested, as I think Luther Halsey was sent to the States on the same ship with our family, the whaler, "Wm. Penn". Robert and I are the only two left of the original seven Tinker children."

On April 15th, two months before the peaceful home-going of Rev. Tinker, there came to this happy household of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beard Tinker, a daughter, Mary Elsa, a greatgrandchild of Reuben and Mary Tinker.

Mrs. Weatherup, daughter of Sarah Tinker Gray, writes that her daughter Margaret is at Oberlin College and her son is taking an engineering course in Cincinnati.

Van Duzee (W. S.).—A letter from Miss Cyrene Van Duzee, for thirty years a missionary in Persia, tells of the death of her sister Grace from heart failure, on June 2nd. She says, "It is only six and a half months since my sister Mary died and sister Stella died four years ago last April, so only I and my youngest sister, Mrs. Geo. C. Kidder, are left, besides our brother Theodore." "I am glad my sisters are safe in heaven, away from all the nerve-racking trials of this present time. Perhaps we shall live to see Christ's coming. I am no longer young, as I was born in 1840, but I am thankful to be pretty well and able to do something. I visit the poor and sick, distribute Home Department S. S. papers and religious newspapers. The Lord has given me a lovely home with my cousin—a double cousin of my own age and a warm friend of missions." "Tell the young people that there is no happier life than working for God. I would be a missionary again if I had my life to live over."

Wetmore (C. H.).—Dr. Fanny Wetmore has presented the Society with 19 volumes of the Missionary Herald, and as they all contain articles about the Sandwich Islands, the gift is quite an accession to our library. Dr. Wetmore visited in Honolulu during the holidays.

An intensely interesting letter from Mrs. Lucy Wetmore Lewis came to us from Florida in March. It is too long for publication in the annual report, and too continuous a story with such varied descriptions of the 4,761 miles traveled from ocean to ocean in their automobile to be condensed. So we will ask 'The Friend' to publish it in its July number. Before the cold weather comes Mr. and Mrs. Lewis expect to come back across the continent to their home in Oakland, Cal.

Whitney (S.).—Mrs. W. W. Goodale accompanied her son, Mr. H. Goodale, to the Coast. They visited her daughter Catherine Goodale Warren, wife of Lieut. Rawson Warren.

Mrs. Wm. Pogue was touring the Islands last summer with her two accomplished daughters, just back from the mainland. They are both musicians and Miss Marie is a teacher, a graduate of King's Conservatory of Music, Cal. Miss Ruth has returned to California and her music studies, but Marie will remain for a time on the Islands.

Wilcox (A.).—Messrs. G. N. and A. S. Wilcox, while giving their scores of thousands of dollars for boys' homes, school buildings and hospitals do not forget the individual boys and girls who long for an education and a chance in life.

Miss Mabel Wilcox, in the employ of the Board of Health as Tuberculosis Nurse for the Island of Kauai, is very earnest in her efforts for the betterment of health conditions. Through her influence a new tuberculosis hospital has been donated by Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wilcox at Kapaa. Miss Mabel read a paper before a Convention of Churches, afterward published in "The Friend," which with its concise simplicity should reach the understanding of all the people of all the nationalities. C. H. Wilcox is a member of the Legislature and his family in the meantime is living in Honolulu. Mr. Gaylord Wilcox and family are at Lihue, Kauai. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew (Kaui Wilcox) have a young son, Archibald Andrew, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Galen Fisher of Tokyo, Japan (Ella Wilcox) have another little boy, Ralph Hart Fisher.

ADOPTED COUSINS.

Akin.—Mrs. M. Jennie (Willis) Akin writes, "The Annual Report of the Cousins always receives a warm welcome. I hope some time to revisit Hilo, the beautiful city where I was born.

Alger.—Mrs. F. C., formerly Miss Van Anglen, writes "Dear Cousins, I have certainly enjoyed the perusal of the 64th Report of the H. M. C. Soc. and send my 'aloha' to all. May the good work go on for many years more. We spent a delightful winter in California and Florida—wanted to see Hawaii but Mr. Alger was needed at home. I am anxious that he should see beautiful Honolulu and the volcano.

Atwater.—Mrs. W. O. Atwater of Oakland writes, "I have never read a report with so much interest as this one just received. I am so happy that myself and children have the privilege of being enrolled as Cousins."

Bates.—Dudley C., who has changed his address to 739 Irwin St., San Rafael, Cal., says, "My best 'aloha' to any who may yet have me in remembrance after these many years."

Beckwith.—Mrs. Harriet and Miss Martha Beckwith send sincere and hearty good wishes from Northampton, Mass. Miss Mary writes from Casa Colima, Cal. "Casa Colima," she says, "is Margaret Brewer Fowler's home on the little hill, a gem of Italian art surrounded by a setting of heavenly views. It is certainly unique to find the main object of such a building 'social center' work, but such it is. It stands on the edge of the Junior Republic and nothing in it is too good for the boys—that is Margaret Fowler's way. Nothing is too good for me, either, it would seem. I have a perfectly free hand, a strong, loyal backing, a work I love—and Margaret. 1917 looks good to me. Aloha nui loa."

Bowen.—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bowen send greetings from 415 W. 118th St., N. Y. They are expected home in June, and W. S. Bowen and family are coming for a visit in the late summer. The very hills and trade-winds will join in the welcome home.

Coleman.—From Mrs. H. E. Coleman's interesting letter we quote, "It is a delight to have the report and read it from cover to cover—all the births, deaths and marriages and the good reports of the different members, many of whom we know." "Perhaps you know we came here nine years ago for the Philadelphia Friends." "Our work has largely been with students and we have much enjoyed the voluntary Bible classes we have been able to have, and the close touch with these young men."

"Since our return to Japan last year my husband has been giving half his time to the work of the World's Sunday Association." "He is largely devoting himself to teacher-training, because that seems to be the greatest need here in Japan." "We have plans for a summer school at Karuikawa, where people from all over Japan can come for the summer, and a Standard Course which can be taken by correspondence.

"The Buddhists are very active in putting in Sunday Schools this year and are getting out Buddhist literature, * * simply inserting the Buddha's name for Christ in many of the hymns, etc. Whether it will make our work harder or easier we cannot tell."

"It is wonderful that the invitation for the World's Convention has gone from Japan in the way it has, not only from Christians but from a group of prominent men who are not Christians, who feel that Japan needs help along the line of religious and moral training for the young. They are splendid men who will stand by us financially and otherwise.

"We hope very much that many Honolulu friends will come over to the convention and lend us the inspiration of their presence."

Edwards.—Mrs. Mary Haven Edwards writes, "We have changed our address to 853 Laurel St., Alameda, as we expect to reside in Alameda for a time."

Kofoid, Mrs. C. A.—"We have just returned from an eight months' trip in the Orient—India, Ceylon, Java and Japan, but could not arrange sailings to strike Hawaii."

Leadingham, Rev. J.—From Pomona, Cal., Mr. Leadingham sends his message, "Thanks for the 64th Annual Report. I am glad the Cousins are keeping up their good work. I shall be interested in reading Mr. Gulick's new book when it is ready. Aloha nui."

Lowrey.—Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, after serving as president of the Outdoor Circle since its beginning, resigned amid showers of honors and regrets. Mr. and Mrs. Lowrey expect to spend some months in California and Canada. Mr. Alan J. Lowrey has sent his name to Col. Roosevelt for service for his country.

Merritt.—Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Merritt were warmly welcomed and extensively entertained in September when they came to renew old friendships and to seek aid in building the Claremont Missionary Home. It is to be a home for missionaries' children who must leave their parents in order to be educated, and the central building is to be a memorial to the Mothers of the Hawaiian Mission, who realized to the full the sorrows of separation from their children.

Oleson.—Mrs. Mary Oleson Elder, of White Plains, N. Y., sent a brief notice of her mother's death. Mrs. Oleson has left behind her the fragrance of a beautiful life full of good deeds.

To Mr. and Mrs. David Oleson was born, Jan. 20, 1917, a daughter, Jane Adams Oleson.

Miss Alice Oleson is making good as traveling secretary for the National Playground Association.

Pease.—Mrs. Harriet A. Pease of Claremont, Cal., says, "The report has interested me greatly, especially the "In Memoriam" chapter. I am glad to have known so many of the Cousins. It warms my heart to read of all the good things being done in the Islands for the Master."

Pepoon.—Miss Helen A. Pepoon writes from Walla Walla, Washington, "It has been some time since I received the report of your Society. It would give me great pleasure to again have it sent me. I was in Honolulu from '88-'91 and at that time I think I was made a member."

We are very glad to be again in touch with Miss Pepoon, as her book was returned to us in 1907 and we then lost her address.

Potter.—Miss S. M. Potter, formerly of Maunaolu, lay for days at the door of the Beautiful City, but she has returned and writes that she is "trying to get all the good she can out of life and to help others on the way." The summer at her home on Long Island was a trying one especially for the children, who were quarantined because of infantile paralysis, and then kept from the sea because of sharks, and her sympathies went out to them. Then for one week Chautauqua lectures were held at Port Jefferson, and she rejoiced that she was well enough to be left alone, that others could enjoy the meetings.

Rouse.—Rev. Fred. Rouse writes to his friend, L. A. Dickey, "For the first time for over twenty years I have an interim in pastorates—and my thoughts go back to my father's old home and my first field. I have held down (or up) two of the best churches in two big western states seventeen years, succeeding Dr. Herring, who could tell about me. Our children are in Smith College and Oberlin, and we could take longer steps than when they stepped with us."

"How well I remember the Dickeys, Baldwins and others. I saw Martha Beckwith the other day at Smith's. Aloha."

Mr. Rouse is now located at South Freeport, Maine.

Searle.—Miss Susan A. Searle of Kobe College, Japan, writes, "I have resigned my position as principal and have been made Principal Emeritus. We celebrated the fortieth anniversary of the school in March, 1916, a few months late, as I had been absent for some months recovering from an accident."

Severance.—Rev. Claude Milton Severance writes from Brooklyn, N. Y., "After five years as pastor of country churches I have returned to New York City and am working for the Mutual Life Insurance Co. Mrs. Severance and myself find great pleasure in singing and speaking at the numerous missions of the city." Mr. Severance had just dedicated the Atlantic City Rescue Mission.

Simpson.—Miss Margaret Simpson, after eight years of steady service in Associated Charities in Washington City, was in charge during the summer of the Fresh Air Camp for the city's poor. It was strenuous work with a camp family of one hundred, but she enjoyed it heartily. The autumn she spent in New York at her sister's and the winter in Washington, eating and sleeping and trying to put extra flesh on bones, weighing about 100 pounds. Her sister Lizzie spent last winter in Florida but this winter at home, caring for her mother. Dr. Dora Simpson, of the Good Samaritan Hospital, Jhelum, India, broke a leg early in the year and still suffers pain and walks on crutches. She may come home for a year after Christmas. These items Miss Simpson writes in a letter to Miss Laura Green.

Smith.—Mrs. Emma Dickenson Smith, wife of Rev. Dr. Arthur Smith, writes from Tung Chou, near Peking, China, "Warm thanks for the delightful glimpse at the Island Cousins. May their tribe increase! We are well and so glad in our work. Mr. S. lectures and writes much—no new book this year, but much useful literature. We spent over five months in the Yang Zi Valley, working in seven places, nine denominations, seven boys' schools and fifteen girls' schools, arranging meetings. We remember you always with grateful affection.

Waterhouse.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred. T. P. Waterhouse expect to leave their children in schools on the mainland next summer and go on to Siam. Dr. Waterhouse and family are living in Honolulu. Mr. and Mrs. John Waterhouse have returned from a visit to the Coast. Mr. George and family spent some time on Kauai but all have returned and Mrs. Waterhouse has her whole large family together, including her sister, Miss Pinder. The daughters, Mrs. Elsie Stubbs, Mrs. Eleanor Isenberg, Mrs. Margaret Walker, live very near, and Mrs. Marion Wilcox is in Honolulu during the meeting of the Legislature. Mr. and Mrs. Walker are the happy parents of a daughter, Helen Johnson Walker, born Feb. 27th, 1917.

Whitney.—Dr. J. M. Whitney celebrated his 81st birthday in September and was remembered with quantities of orchids from the Moanalua gardens. A birthday table was also spread for him at the Woman's Day luncheon and all the ladies were served with birthday cake.

Judge W. L. Whitney resigned his position as Judge of the Juvenile Court, where he was so popular, and has gone into private practice.

MARRIED.

- Dean-Jacobsen.—In Honolulu, July 26, 1916, Mr. Daniel William Dean to Miss Hannah Maud K. Jacobsen.
- Farley-Pepper.—In San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 2, 1916, Mr. Joseph K. Farley to Miss Gertrude M. Pepper.
- Green-Haynes.—In San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 14, 1916, Mr. John Harrison Green to Miss Margaret Shelton Haynes.
- Hitchcock-Roulf.—In Cambridge, Mass., Sept., 1916, Mr. Wm. Charles Hitchcock to Miss Helen Irmgard Roulf.
- Howe-Armstrong.—In Holderness, N. J., Aug. 16, 1916, Rev. Arthur Howe to Miss Margaret M. Armstrong.
- Isenberg-Kopke.—In New York City, Aug. 9, 1916, Mr. D. Paul Isenberg to Miss Bertha Kopke.
- Morgan-Atherton.—In Honolulu, June 8, 1916, Mr. James F. Morgan to Miss Laura Atherton.

IN MEMORIAM.

General Theodore F. Forbes, a “Cousin” only slightly known in these Islands, passed away in Washington, D. C., on March 9th, at the age of seventy-seven.

He was the youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. Cochran Forbes, who were in the fifth company of missionaries to these Islands. Mr. and Mrs. Forbes were stationed on the Kona side of the Island of Hawaii, and this son was born at Kealakekua, where he spent the first seven years of his life, leaving with his parents in 1848, when his mother’s ill health made it necessary for the family to return to the Mainland.

He entered the U. S. Army as a volunteer at the time of the Civil War and served continuously until he was retired at the age limit as Brigadier-General.

He returned to the Islands only once, in 1902, at which time he was on his way to the Philippines in command of the Twenty-ninth U. S. Infantry, and so had only a few days to spend here.

He leaves a second wife, but no children, having lost his first wife, a daughter in childhood and a son in early manhood.

H. G. F.

Randolph Howard Hitchcock was born at Kaluaaha, Molokai, at the old mission homestead, Nov. 13, 1892, but spent most of his boyhood in Honolulu at the Rex Hitchcock home, just beyond the Kamehameha School premises in Kalihi. He attended the Punahou Preparatory School when it was in the Armstrong home on Beretania Street, the Punahou School, whence he graduated in 1912, was at Exeter Academy a year, after which he entered Harvard College in September, 1913. But circumstances required an immediate preparation for business, and leaving Harvard in January, 1914, he took eight months in the Hawley School of Electricity in Boston and went to work for the Edison Lighting Co. of Boston, with which he was associated till Oct., 1915, when he returned to Harvard to finish his college course, but, alas! he was destined for other things, and a serious illness took him off Feb. 5th, 1917.

Randolph was a boy of boys. All of his acquaintances soon grew to be warm friends and his untimely taking away was a shock to all. He entered with enthusiasm into all sorts of sport and distinguished himself in track athletics, making a record with the pole-vault. In college he became a football player, so good that he belonged to the University squad and won his "H".

About 1910 Randolph united with Central Union Church of which he remained a faithful and consistent member till the end came.

Miss Ellen Augusta Johnson died at "The Peninsula", Oahu, Sept. 15, 1916. She was the youngest daughter of the Rev. Edward Johnson and Mrs. Lois Johnson of Waioli, Kauai. Her parents were both born in New Hampshire and came to these Islands as missionaries of the American Board in 1837 and were stationed at Waioli, Kauai, where they lived for many years.

Ellen Augusta was born at Waioli, Nov. 26, 1850, and was in her sixty-sixth year. She was kind and gentle by nature and beloved by those who knew her. She had been living for a number of years with her sister, Miss A. Frances Johnson at The Peninsula.

Surviving her are two sisters and a brother; Miss A. Frances Johnson of Pearl City, Mrs. D. F. Fyfe of Santa Cruz, and Henry Johnson of San Diego. Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson Williams died a year ago and another sister, Mrs. Louise Bindt, died twenty years ago.

The funeral services were held at Central Union Church, of which she was a member for many years, and the interment was in the mission burial grounds at Kawaiahao Church.

Miss Anna Paris

Hawaii has suffered a great loss. The old Hawaii which reaches far back to beloved monarchy days of royal splendor, to the old Hawaiian flag, to the days of real plaintive Hawaiian melodies, with their minor strains, and to the true, old-fashioned life; the old Hawaii is mourning a dear friend.

A true daughter of Hawaii has gone from among us, a dearly beloved cousin whose face we shall see no more. And yet, though Anna Paris is no longer with us in the flesh, so strong a personality was she, that we feel her spirit is still with us and will be with us, as long as the scent of the maile is in the air, and the gleam of the ilima is before our eyes.

Her spirit has not left us, never will, while the sunlight is on our hills, the rainbows span our valleys and the sunsets delight our eyes, but our sense of loss is great; first, our own personal loss, then the loss to Hawaii of a true Kamaaina, whose affections were deeply rooted in our Islands.

We, her friends, mourn the loss of her wise counsel, her talented words in prose and verse, her kindly criticism, her loving praise, her keen sense of humor.

Hawaii mourns the loss of a loyal, faithful friend. The following lines which she often quoted show her love for her native land:

.“Let us drink to the cool of the dawning,
To the jewels of the mid-day sea,
To the glow on yon western summits,
To the star over fair Waikiki.”

Her own poem, entitled “Hawaii”, is throbbing with loyalty to her beloved Islands.

We love to think of all she enjoyed in life as her wonderful spirit rose above disappointments which seemed almost more than she could bear. The same patience and endurance which carried her through many a trial, helped her bear with the help of local anesthesia alone, the fearful ordeal of a capital operation. She went through it bravely, but her frail body could not stand the strain, and she left us without a struggle, brave to the last, her mind alert, every nerve strung to high tension, in her effort to recover her health.

Her going means mourning for us, but as one of her dear friends wrote, it is a glorious change for her, which is best expressed by Miss Paris herself in her poem entitled “Easter 1909”.

Rev. Joseph E. Tinker entered into rest on the morning of June 30th, 1916. He was born Jan. 20th, 1833, in the Castle House, Honolulu, the second son of Reuben and Mary Tinker. The family sailed from Koloa, October, 1840, landing in Falmouth May 28th, 1841. They lived for four years in Madison Lake Co., Ohio, that being the home of Mrs. Tinker's parents. They removed in September, 1845, to Westfield, New York, and here his boyhood days were passed (his father being minister of the Presbyterian church till his death). He was for a short time a member of Amherst College but later made Hamilton College his choice, and was graduated in 1857. His theological course was in Auburn Seminary.

His first pastorate was in Willoughby, Ohio; from there he was called to Franklinville and later to Portville, Sinclairville, and Rock Stream, all in New York State. He retired from active pastorates in 1902 after 40 years of continuous service, but still preached as occasion offered until less than a year ago and from 1911 to 1913 was the regular supply of a church in Ellsworth, Conn. His wife died about fifteen years ago. During the last eight years of his life, his home was with his son, Jos. B. Tinker, of Clayton, Mass., where the end came, June 30th, after a very short illness. One other son is left, Robt. Ely Tinker, of Buffalo, New York; also a brother, Robt. H. Tinker, of Rockford, Ill., and a sister, Mrs. Mary Tinker Harvey, of Highland Pk., New Rochelle, N. Y. As he wished to be taken back to his old home for his final rest, the wish was gratified. A short service in the Clayton chapel preceded this last journey and another service in the Westfield Church, July 4th. The interment was in the family burial lot.

M. T. H.

Grace Glenora Van Duzee was born Dec. 29, 1851, at Buffalo, N. Y. She was the seventh child of Mr. (afterward Dr.) and Mrs. W. S. Van Duzee, who came to the "Sandwich Islands" in that large company, No. 8, on the bark "Mary Frazier," in 1837. Two of her sisters became missionaries in Turkey and Persia, one of whom died about six months before Miss Grace's home-going.

When quite a child, she met Father Bingham and other missionaries in her father's home. Stories of these far away islands as told by a loving mother, whom she spoke of as a "saint upon earth", were to her more fascinating than any fairy tale, and no wonder the Islands seemed a paradise without the trail of evil, and a sort of borderland to heaven.

Miss Van Duzee became a Cousin in 1906, and perhaps no one enjoyed the privileges of cousinhood more than she did. The Annual Report, "The Friend" and occasional Honolulu papers and letters were read with great delight. Her pleasures in summertime were the care of her flowers and long trolley rides into the country, for she was an ardent lover of nature, and in winter she enjoyed her correspondence. She wrote to other shut-ins and made for them little keepsakes, and she sent long letters to her missionary sisters in Turkey and Persia. Her continual confidence in her Heavenly Father's love and care was like the trust of a little child, rarely beautiful.

Claire Eloise Castle Williams—1847-1917.

[Born Claire Eloise Coleman.]

We realized that we should miss her. How could it be otherwise with the passing of her unfailing kindness, her gentle ironies, her utter sanity of purifying wit? Her very presence dispelled affectation and unreality as morning sunshine dispels night mists. We came to her like fretted or hurt children to be made well; her courage taught us to recognize no defeat as final; to her understanding eyes our partial successes were prophetic of ultimate satisfactions.

But of what sources of strength lay constantly open to her, at what fountains her own spirit drank, her lips rarely breathed. Even the silence of death could scarcely deepen her reticence. While she was with us in dear human companionship her hospitality of heart dispelled the sense of awe that now threatens to isolate her from us in a new sainthood beyond our power to penetrate—perhaps not beyond the power of her penetrating sympathy and love.

Abell—In Berkeley, March 29, Mary Rosalie Abell, beloved wife of R. Leslie Abell and daughter of Dr. Mary A. Stoltz of Redlands and sister of Dr. Herbert R. Stoltz of Palo Alto, a native of Hawaii, aged 36 years and 6 months.

Married on New Year's Day, she lived barely three happy months her new home ere her sudden passing. A lovely Christian character and of unusually bright and interesting mental attainments, her loss is deeply mourned by those who knew and loved her. Her mother and brother suffer a crushing blow in this loss of an only daughter and sister.

E. L. L.

Miss Harriet M. Bliss, a relative of Mrs. C. M. Hyde, was made a Cousin while visiting in Honolulu in 1886. Mrs. Arthur Tufts, of Boston, has been a member since 1874, and Mrs. Frances Porter McCully, wife of Rev. Charles G. McCully, with her husband, became a member in 1874 or 1875.

Mrs. Annie (Gale) Williston was the wife of Levi Lyman Richards Williston, born at Lahaina in 1830, the son of Rev. Wm. Richards of the first Missionary re-enforcement, and adopted by the Willistons of Cambridge, Mass. Mrs. Williston was very helpful to the Recorder in securing genealogical data, and the few business letters written were enough to prove her to be a woman of thought, culture and affection.

We cannot but mention here our loss in the departure of Dr. Wm. L. Moore, who left for the better land Oct. 12, 1916. As a skilled and efficient physician, a sincere promoter of the cities' welfare and a true friend of humanity, he was greatly beloved and is sadly missed. We extend the heartfelt sympathy of the Society to our "cousin", Mrs. Nellie Lowrey Moore, and to their three lovely daughters.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. W. ANDREWS,
Secretary.

MISSIONARY FUND.

Income to be employed “for the purposes of the society” and principal of at least $2,000.00 always preserved.

The income of this fund has always been given to missionary and charitable objects and not for general expenses of the society.

Its origin was a gift of $500.00 from E. C. Bond, to which has been added other gifts and an appropriation from surplus funds of the society.

This fund has not for many years been invested by the treasurer, perhaps never. For the first few years of the fund the treasurer merely reported the amount of the fund and that it was invested, but not what the investments were, nor who, if not the treasurer, was in charge of it. Mr. W. R. Castle has been employed by the various treasurers to invest this money at least since 1883 and perhaps since the first gift by Mr. E. C. Bond, though there is no record in our reports of any vote authorizing this or relieving the treasurer of responsibility. During this time the fund has greatly increased, showing Mr. Castle's good judgment as an investor. The investments have all been real estate mortgages except one in Pioneer Mill Co. stock. There has never been a foreclosure although once a Pearl City lot was taken over in payment of a mortgage debt and several times debtors have been considerably behind in interest payments.

This year, the treasurer, feeling that mortgages on debtors' homes, etc., were not perfectly in keeping with a missionary society as a foreclosure may at times seem hard-hearted, and wishing also to shoulder his own responsibility as treasurer, has taken the fund from Mr. Castle to re-invest in bonds. Most of the money has been paid over so recently that bonds ordered have not arrived and so can not be inventoried in this account. The Pearl City lot has been sold.

An appropriation was made out of this fund for work of Fannie Andrews Shepard in Aintab, Asia Minor, but as by mistake Mrs. Shepard was overpaid $200.00 the previous year, ($200.00 by the treasurer and $200.00 by Geo. R. Carter) this has not been spent this year.

LIFE MEMBERS OF THE HAWAIIAN MISSION
CHILDREN'S SOCIETY, 1917.

SYMBOLS IN THE LIST OF MEMBERS.

Original members of the Society, whether children of missionaries or elect members, have their names printed in the usual manner. The names of their children are preceded by one star, and those of children's children by two stars.

In many cases the name is preceded by a symbol in the margin, which denotes the person's missionary parentage or ancestry; and the key to the symbols is the list below, in which the missionary names are given, but no titles.

 Where the residence of a husband is given, that of the wife, in the next line, is the same.
